

Blood Diseases;

When the blood is diseased and the system Anæmic or Scrofulous, it carries sickness through the whole body, for the current of human life is in the blood. This proves how necessary it is to have pure rich blood, because an impoverished condition of it brings on Fevers, Malaria, Rheumatism, Bowel Complaints, Lung Scrofula, General Debility, etc.

Wampole's

Preparation, perfected and tasteless, of Cod Liver Oil with Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry Bark, resists the attacks of all disease germs in the blood, is highly recommended as the best modern treatment to clear your system and to bring back robust health and strength. Is really a family medicine chest.

RACE AFFRONT TAKEN.

A Chinese Resident Protests Against a Report in the "Advertiser."

EDITOR BULLETIN: Please allow me space in your valuable paper, with reference to the little panic that occurred Saturday night, which caused the Chinese shopkeepers to close their shops in a hurry. I was considerably surprised to find this trifling incident highly colored by the editor of the Advertiser, with a mixture of contemptuous hatred and gross fabrication. The whole account was exaggerated and contained very little stuff, but which was magnified into a conglomeration of idiotic rubbish. It is hard to conceive how an editor like that of the Advertiser, supposed to be gifted with some common sense, could stoop so low as to place before the public an account of an incident, part of which he knew was void of the essential element of truth. Whether he did it under the influence of malice or prejudice, he certainly knew that such an account would be likely to revive every feeling of animosity between the two nationalities that have but lately become reconciled.

He said: "A half-intoxicated native ran up Nuuanu street shouting in a frantic voice, that the Japanese are coming!" Now, from a reliable source I learn that such an exclamation of idiotic nonsense had not been at all uttered by the native in question. He simply yelled out that there was a racket going on at the Government building, and the Chinese should shut up their shops, which they did. But he did not bawl out: "The Japanese are coming! They are on the warpath, armed with wicked implements," etc.

Our highly humorous editor added that, for fear of the Japs, the Chinese shopkeepers implicitly obeyed the native and that the "pigtails galore were seen flying in every direction."

What a profound analyser of human nature! What a keen observer of mankind! How he came to possess such extensive knowledge that the Chinese of Honolulu display fear of our Oriental neighbors, I am at a loss to conjecture. Evidently he considered it a good occasion to impress his readers with his hard headed experience that we Chinese here are a mass of cowards. I can assure him if he is under that impression he is thoroughly mistaken. It does not follow that because our countrymen were defeated in China we should ever entertain a fear of the Mikado's subjects. On the contrary we throw the stigma of dishonor from us as we would free ourselves of the burden of a filthy carcass, and we despise the cowards and traitors that stained the glorious flag of the Celestial Empire. It was not fear of the Japanese that caused the closing up the shops on Saturday night, but the shopkeepers actually thought that another revolution like that of January had broken out, as already some unfounded rumors had been circulating about town to that effect.

As regards the phrase, "Pigtails galore were seen flying in every direction," used by the editor, he probably thought it a fine bit of precious wit for his readers at the expense of our national honor. It is needless to say that this is highly insulting and provoking to us, when we are conscious that we have in no way merited such uncalled for titles on any part of our person. How the editor's well-stocked brain gained the notion that a human queue could be a pigtail, I refer to the judgment of every sensible and unprejudiced man. It is evident that he could not make out the difference between a human queue and a pigtail. I would suggest that the editor of the Advertiser should decorate himself with a queue, and ask himself how he should like to have it called a "pigtail" in public print.

DESCRIPTION AND TERMS:

CREOLE is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:15 in Petaluma, Cal., August 24, 1894, distancing his whole field in the first heat; then again to 2:15 in stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15, fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole by Prompter out of Grace by Buccaneer shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10 and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed, and remarkably intelligent."—Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.) He is 15 1/2 hands high and of powerful build throughout. His color is glossy black with one white hind foot. His disposition is all that could be desired, and his action superb. He is a sure-footed getter.
